Report on State Level Seminar organised by Departments of Economics and Political Science, Maheshtala College

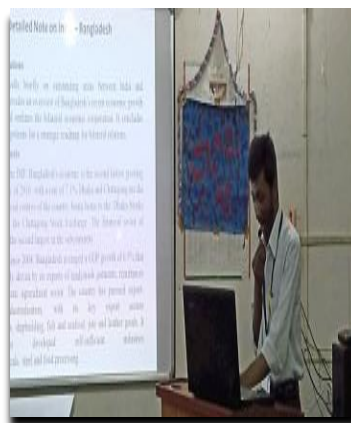

Topic: ‘Know your SAARC neighbours; Pakistan and Bangladesh’

Date: 22nd February, 2019

The Department of Economics conducted a one-day state-level conference on "Know Your SAARC Neighbours: Pakistan and Bangladesh" on February 22, 2019, in association with the Department of Political Science. Dr. Debashis Majumdar, an Associate Professor of political science at Diamond Harbour Women’s University, and Prof. Prabal Dasgupta, Associate Professor of Economics at A. G. C. Bose College, were the two special guests who spoke.

Prof. Sanjok Lohar from the Department of Economics opened the session with a welcome statement. Dr. Rumpa Das, Principal, Maheshtala College then welcomed both of the guest speakers for their upcoming discussions. Dr. Debashis Majumdar delivered a speech on the political ties between India and Bangladesh that was excellent and engaging. The next lecture was given by Prof. Prabal Dasgupta, who discussed the economic ties between Pakistan and India. A question-and-answer period followed each presentation. Both the sessions had active interaction between the guest speakers and the students. Maloy Hazra, a 4th semester Economics Honours student, also presented his work later. Overall, the seminar was interesting and lively, and the students in attendance gained a lot from it.
