Report of Workshop on voice modulation on 12.11.2021 and 13.11.2021

The workshop on voice modulation organized by the Department of Journalism & Mass Communication aimed to enhance the communication skills of participants, particularly in the realm of broadcasting and public speaking. Voice modulation is an essential skill for journalists as it enables them to convey information effectively, engage audiences and maintain interest throughout various mediums. The workshop commenced with an introduction to the importance of voice modulation in Journalism. Participants were acquainted with the significance of tone, pitch, pace and emphasis in effective communication.

The series of interactive sessions were conducted to explore various vocal techniques such as projection, articulation and breathing exercises. Participants engaged in practical exercises to develop control over their vocal range and clarity of speech. Participants were involved in role plays and simulations to stimulate real life broadcasting scenarios.

The workshop on voice modulation proved to be highly beneficial for participants and enhance their communication abilities. The workshop on voice modulation organized by the Journalism & Mass Communication department was a resounding success. Participants gained valuable insights and practical skills that will undoubtedly benefit them in their careers as Journalists and Communicators. The department looks forward to organizing same workshops in the future to further empower aspiring journalists in mastering the art of effective communication.

Signing up for the course served as a great way to improve one's knowledge on Idioms and Proverbs. The students were taught that English idioms, proverbs, and expressions are an important part of everyday English. They come up all the time in both written and spoken English. Because idioms don't always make sense literally, you'll need to familiarize yourself with the meaning and usage of each idiom. That may seem like a lot of work, but learning idioms is fun, especially when we compare English idioms to the idioms in our own language. They were taught extremely common English Idioms used in everyday conversations along with their meanings and correct usage.

The Department received positive response from the Students at the end of the programme.

Signing up for the course served as a great way to improve one's knowledge on Idioms and Proverbs. The students were taught that English phrasal verbs aren't the most popular topic among all, as each phrase has many different meanings. Just change a preposition, and one will get an entirely new meaning of the words. Thus, it seems challenging to memorize them all, but one can start from the most common phrasal verbs that are used to have an English conversation. The students were taught extremely common English Phrasal Verbs used in everyday conversations along with their meanings and correct usage.

The Department received positive response from the Students at the end of the programme.

Report on Workshop on GST

Date of Event: 06/01/2023

Name and Type of Event: Skill Development Workshop on GST

Conducted by: Dr. Sudipto Jana

No. of Participants: 40

Department of Commerce, Maheshtala College in association with ICA Edu Skills Pvt. Ltd., Behala, has organised a 1 day workshop on Goods and Services Tax on 06/01/2023. Prof. Shampa Dasgupta has inaugurated the programme. Dr. Sudipto Jana has conducted the programme. Prof. Chunki Sarkar gave an introductory speech regarding GST that every student must be aware of.

A resource person, Mr. Raju Kumar, CA., expressed his views on implementation of GST. He also mentioned that implementation of GST has helped to bring single tax system along with reform in Tax administration. He also enlightened the students about the basic provisions of GST. He explained about the mechanism in which GST functions. This speech on GST was an immense help to the students and the knowledge they had gained from the lecture will help them in exploring different job market opportunities in future.
