Report

Maheshtala: The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Maheshtala College holds an International Seminar on “Representation of Society: New Media, New Trends” on August 19, 2019 at the Digital Room of the College. Professor Rajib Nandi from Chittagong University Bangladesh was the Keynote Speaker for the event and Dr. Amrita Basu Roy Choudhury, Research Fellow (RUSA II), Centre for Studies in Cultural Diversity and Well-Being, University of Jadavpur, Visiting Faculty at Diamond Harbour Women’s University and Lady Brabourne College was the Chief Guest.

Dr. Rumpa Das, Principal, Maheshtala College, whose uninterrupted cooperation has made the event a success, observes, “I was planning this event for a long time but because of not getting any suitable dates from Prof. Rajib, I was unable to materialize the seminar. But finally I am happy for the Journalism Dept. for organizing this in a flawless manner. I congratulate the entire Dept. and also students and teaching fraternity for this successful event.

The Seminar was organized in the wake of the recent developments seen in the media and all its kinds which is by large affecting the society. Prof. Nandi, while comparing the system between India and Bangladesh, observes that the crux of the media cultivation is almost tall the same in every country. We experience in our country the same forms of difficulties faced by the people of India.”

Dr. Amrita presented a paper on Women Empowerment in lieu of the growth and progress of Indian Cinema and how did they portray women in films. She added, “I am so happy to see so many delegates, both students and faculty members from different colleges, present in the seminar.

I am also particularly happy for the students who were sitting firmly during the entire seminar and listening to every talks cautiously and patiently.”

Dr. Suchandra Bhattacharya, IQAC Coordinator, Maheshtala College has also congratulated the entire team and promised future iterations of such event. Prof. Mohammed Johaed, and Prof. Arghya Mukhopadhyay, Department of Journalism played pivotal roles in making the event a success.

REPORT

The aim of this student seminar on William Shakespeare was to encourage interest among the students regarding the playwright, along with inspiring their critical thinking. This aim was satisfactorily achieved as students took part from across batches. While 9 of them presented on various aspects of the dramatist’s life and works, others listened to the presentations with keen interests and asked valuable questions. Several teachers of the college were also present.

Title : Concept of Microprocessor and Microcontroller.

Date : 12th September, 2019

A one-day presentation by the students of Computer Science Department of Maheshtala College has been conducted on 12th September, 2019 with the heartiest support of the Principal Dr. Rumpa Das.

The day was started by the motivational speech of respected Principal Madam. After that, students presented very nicely one after another.

The purpose of this type of presentation is to understand the progress of a student regarding the course and also find the students' interest beyond the syllabus.

The whole session was interactive and the students answered many queries of the teachers. Besides, teachers also provided their valuable suggestions so that, they can improve further.

All the students were very much encouraged and wanted to perform such presentations regularly to improve themselves
